

A Sponsorship That Changed My Path

Phan Thi Hoang Mai was once a LOVE-sponsored student facing significant challenges. After her parents divorced when she was very young, financial hardship became a constant reality for her family. At times, continuing her education seemed impossible.

Everything changed when she received a sponsorship. The financial support eased some of the burden, but what impacted her most was knowing that someone cared about her future. Through letters from her sponsor and the encouragement she received over the years, Mai gained confidence, hope, and motivation to keep moving forward.

Today, Mai works for a Chinese corporation and is able to support herself and contribute to her family's well-being. While she does not consider herself exceptionally successful, she is proud of how far she has come.

"LOVE gave me more than a sponsorship", Mai shares. "It gave me hope and reminded me that someone believed in me. That encouragement helped me believe in myself." She hopes her story will inspire current students to keep learning, persevere through challenges, and never stop believing that a brighter future is possible.
